

Explore Lake Balboa in Hot Springs Village — the largest lake in the community at 944 acres! Perfect for fishing, swimming, boating, kayaking, and more, Lake Balboa is your go-to spot for sunny outdoor fun.

Spend balmy spring days relaxing on the sandy beach, firing up the grill for a lakeside dinner, playing volleyball, hiking the nearby trail, swinging in the playground, or heading out on the water. The lake's boat ramp, located off Ponce de Leon Drive, makes launching your boat and kayak easy and convenient.

For all your water sports adventures, visit Balboa Marina, located right on the lake's shore. Rent pontoon boats, kayaks, paddleboards, and more—everything you need for a great day on the water. Balboa Marina also offers fishing supplies, drinks, snacks, and a fun menu of made-to-order food.

Make memories at Lake Balboa, the heart of outdoor living in Hot Springs Village!
